

Education Leader, Kinma School (permanent part time - flexible hours) This role is available from Term 2, 2018

The role

Kinma is a unique independent progressive school in Sydney set on two hectares, adjacent to a national park. We provide dynamic and innovative learning programs for students at our preschool and primary school. Kinma is a small school and has 15 full-time and part-time teaching staff.

Our Learning and Education Leader is our principal teacher, whose expertise is provided to all our teachers, rather to an individual class. You will engage with staff both in the classroom, and in preparation and review of teaching practice and professional development.

This role is directly responsible for:

- Teacher development and training
- Oversight of teacher programming and planning
- Sharing, and providing leadership on, teacher success and challenges in relation to their professional roles
- Helping teachers to incorporate Kinma's core principles into their everyday practice
- Development and review of school policies relating to education practice, in keeping with Kinma's constitutional principles and practices
- Leading educators to cultivate parent understanding of Kinma's core principles

Who should apply

The Education Leader will be an experienced teacher who genuinely loves to work with children and adults. The Education Leader will have a passion for creativity and cutting edge pedagogy, and will continue to lead the school in its progressive program. You will co-create exciting programs that inspire academic, social and emotional growth for students, co-workers and parents.

Your personal attributes:

- intellectual strength, professional integrity and a passion for progressive education
- ongoing enthusiasm, initiative and innovation
- eagerness to keep learning and growing – both informally and through professional development
- strength in open and clear communication
- emotional maturity and stability

Essential Knowledge, Skills and Experience

- Extensive experience in primary teaching
- Affinity with Kinma's Core Principles, and experience in implementing such approaches to education
- Experience navigating NESA and managing education practice within its requirements
- Expertise on social and emotional issues affecting young people
- Proven success in working collaboratively as a member of a team
- High level personal skills in managing relationships, including with and between students, staff, and families.

Qualifications:

- Tertiary Qualification in Primary Education
- Current registration as a Primary teacher in NSW
- Current WWCC (employee level)
